MASTER INSIGHT : BE A WINNER

Everyone's a winner, if that is what they choose. Unless their choice is not to win, then of course they lose. Winners always have ideas, while losers fix the blame. The two might seem alike, they sure don't think the same. All winners have a dream of hat they want to do. Then plan a life to reach their goal and to make their dreams come true. Losers see a problem in a good idea. All a winner sees is another chance to further their career. What we do about our thoughts is up to you and me.
